4. Usage Tips & Common Mistakes

For Each Verb, Include:

✓ When to Use

"Speak" vs "Talk" vs "Say" vs "Tell"

Speak: General ability or language

- "I speak three languages."
- "Can you speak louder?"

Talk: Conversation or discussion

- "Let's talk about your plans."
- "They're talking to each other."

Say: Specific words or opinions

- "What did you say?"
- "She says it's important."

Tell: Information to someone

- "Tell me the truth."
- "He told us a story."

✓ Common Mistakes

✗ WRONG: "I am knowing the answer."

✓ CORRECT: "I know the answer."

✎ REASON: "Know" is a stative verb, not used in continuous form.

✗ WRONG: "She speaked English."

✓ CORRECT: "She spoke English."

✎ REASON: "Speak" is irregular; past tense is "spoke", not "speaked."

✗ WRONG: "I have went there."

✓ CORRECT: "I have gone there."

✎ REASON: Past participle of "go" is "gone", not "went."

✓ Collocations

Common combinations with the verb:

Speak:

- speak fluently
- speak softly/loudly
- speak the truth
- speak your mind
- speak highly of someone

Write:

- write clearly
- write a letter/email
